BRIGADIER SALEH MOSLEH MEETS STUDENTS OF LAW FACULTY

ADEN, Nov. 17 - ANA - Brigadier Saleh Mosleh Qassem, CC Member and Minister of Defence, met this morning the cadet officers in the Military College and the tstudents of the Law Faculty in Aden University with whom he spoke about the importance of the General Reserve Ordinance. In his talk Brigadier Saleh Mosleh said that the first two years in military service are regarded as the first step in political and combat preparation of the youth of our country by making them gain knowledge and experience connected with military training and acquainting them with the conditions of the armed forces and methods of service in them and preparing them thoroughly well for becoming as reserves for the armed forces.

BRIGADIER SALEH MOSLEH - Cont'd.

Brigadier Saleh Mosleh stressed upon the necessity that the national military service being performed by the youth is to be connected with punctual military training on the consideration that this is a national duty to be performed by them during the period of service.

In the the course of his talk Brigadier Saleh Mosleh dealt with the aggressive plans and movements of the imperialist forces and their staunches in the area which aim at shaking security and stability and creating excuses and justifications for interference in the affairs of our peoples and aggressing our national sovereignty. He pointed out that those taking part with the American deployment forces in their provocative manouevres and extending to them the land and sea for establishing their military bases and fleets are only crystalising by that an insolant and hireling stand to the enemies of our Arab peop les.

He said that our Arab peop les in Egypt, Oman, Somalia and the Sudan have fought against colonialism and incurred great sacrifices for liberation and independence but the puppet regimes in these countries have brought back colonialism through new methods and forms not caring for the national interests of the peoples and the Arab peoples in general.

Brigaider Saleh Mosleh condemned the collusion of some regimes with the aggressive policy of American imperialism as he pointed out that at a time in some European countries and t he European public opinion oppose the aggressive policy of American to produce and stock-pile neutron weapons and deploy nuclear missiles we find those who collude with America in the Arab arena, a thing that constitutes an open provocation against the interests of our peop les.
